In accordance with the model constitution for congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, the Bishop of the Indiana-Kentucky Synod, with the concurrence of the congregation council, is responsible for the appointment of an interim pastor when a congregation has a pastoral vacancy.

During the pastoral vacancy at ________________________________ Lutheran Church in ______________________, the Reverend ____________________________ is hereby appointed to serve as the Interim from ____________________ to ____________________ subject to review and renewal. While an interim pastor shall normally continue until a new pastor is called and installed, the arrangement can be terminated with 30 days’ notice after consultation by the Bishop, the interim, and the congregation council.

Duties: The Interim is asked to be responsible for all services of worship, to be present at council and congregational meetings, to share regular reports with the church council, to attend to crisis needs of the congregation, and to perform these specified responsibilities:

The interim pastor shall have the rights and duties of a regularly called pastor and, with the concurrence of the congregation council, may delegate the same in part to a supply pastor. The interim pastor, and any other rostered ministers who may assist, shall refrain from influence in the selection of a pastor. The interim pastor shall inform the Bishop and/or synod staff of any changes or pertinent information, and upon completion of service, shall certify to the Bishop that the parochial records for the period of the interim are in order.
Synod Assembly
Should the Synod Assembly occur during the interim pastor’s service, the congregation will pay their expenses to attend the Assembly.

Schedule
The interim pastor will be at the congregation on Sundays (or as otherwise specified) and on these additional days each week:

___________________________________________________________

Time Off
The congregation will provide one (1) week of vacation for each three months served, which will normally be taken during that three-month period. Up to two weeks may be taken at a time, but vacation time will not be cumulative beyond the current contract period, unless otherwise negotiated by the interim pastor and congregation council.

Additional time off for sickness, holidays, continuing education, etc. should follow the I-K Synod Compensation Standards for Ministers of Word and Sacrament.

Compensation
Compensation for these services will be based on the I-K Synod Compensation Standards for Ministers of Word and Sacrament.

Housing _________________________________________________________

Auto reimbursement _______________________________________________
(based on the standard IRS rate.)

Continuing Education_______________________________________________

Pension/Benefits as applicable________________________________________

The Call Process
An interim pastor is generally not available for call to this congregation. If during the course of this contract, the congregation council should wish to pursue this possibility, the council shall contact the Bishop’s office for counsel and guidance. However, should the Bishop receive information that would indicate that the interim pastor is pursuing a call without such counsel and guidance, the Bishop will act immediately to remove the interim pastor.

To these conditions, the undersigned agree and ask for God's help and guidance during this important time in the life of this congregation.
